TO PROSPECTIVE PROPOSERS:

The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico Department of Education (the "Department") is requesting proposals for Basic Maintenance pursuant to the above-referenced Request for Proposals (RFP). The RFP and vendor selection process are conducted in accordance with the Department of Education's Procurement Guidelines established by the Department, which are posted on the Department's website at http://intraedu.dde.pr/Subastas/BMIC\_OSIATD\_FY2017-001.pdf. Notice of the RFP is published on the PRDE website, and if required, in the El Nuevo Día newspaper (Spanish) on Monday, May 1st 2017.

Vendors are requested to propose Basic Maintenance of Internal Connections to be provided under the direction of the Office of Information Systems and Technology Support for Teaching for all of the Department's schools during the term of the awarded contract. Each proposal must be in the format specified in the RFP, must include all of the required submittals specified in the RFP and be submitted by the deadline set forth on the cover page of the RFP. In addition, vendors are invited to participate in a pre-proposal vendor conference on Friday May 26, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. All vendors are required to submit the Letters of Intent to Submit a Proposal as specified in the RFP. ## I. ABOUT THE PUERTO RICO DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

1. OVERVIEW

The Puerto Rico Department of Education (the “Department” or “PRDE”) is the government agency that directly runs and operates Puerto Rico’s public school system. Unlike most states, the PRDE acts both as a State Educational Agency (SEA), and as a single Local Educational Agency (LEA). Information concerning the approximate size of the PRDE school system is as follows:

THE PRDE SCHOOL SYSTEM
Students:	298,424
Schools:	1,288
Teachers:	31,600
Employees (including teachers):	70,000
Educational Regions:	7
School Districts (within the Regions):	28

2. TECHNOLOGY PLAN

A. OVERVIEW OF THE PLAN

As the third largest public school system in the United States (based on student enrollment), the Department faces significant challenges, and sees technology as one important tool to help meet those challenges. Where student technology access is available, it is often in a traditional “computer lab” setting rather than integrated into the everyday classroom curriculum.

The Department’s 2014 - 2019 technology plan (the “Technology Plan”) has been approved by the U.S. Department of Education. The Technology Plan outlines how the Department intends to meet these and related challenges by leveraging newer technologies in better ways to improve educational outcomes significantly over the coming years.

The Technology Plan has been prepared at a time when several significant trends are converging to galvanize a change in education, including major shifts in how educators think about and deploy technology to enhance student achievement. Some examples of these include the rapid adoption of mobile devices and tablets at an unprecedented rate because smaller devices take less space in the classroom, use less power and are more student-friendly. Within five years, the norm for educational computing will be a 1:1 ratio of mobile computing devices to users.<sup>1</sup> Also, the adoption of “cloud-based” computing, or moving “everything” – from educational software applications, to multimedia content, to standardized assessments, to student work – out to the Internet, is popular because of its convenience and also since it reduces the need for schools to use highly skilled IT labor to manage file servers and disk images, which thereby cuts IT costs. Both of these new technology measures require much higher bandwidth Internet connections and the infrastructure to distribute that bandwidth to the classrooms.

In addition, President Obama's recently announced ConnectED initiative sets a five-year goal of high speed connectivity for all schools, which reflects a widespread recognition of these new educational trends.<sup>2</sup> The Department embraces these trends and changes in technology and utilizes this RFP to leverage the technology needed to provide a quality education to every child. The Technology plan and RFP are closely related as the RFP solicitation must mirror the technology goals of the Technology Plan, ensuring that it is requesting the appropriate equipment and services in order to meet the needs of the Department. Specifically, the RFP bases much of what it is soliciting for bids on the Technology Plan Infrastructure, or Element 3 of the Technology Plan, where it discusses a needs assessment of telecommunication services, hardware, software, Internet connectivity and its distribution and other services that will be needed to improve education.

B. WIDE AREA NETWORK (WAN)

Currently, all of PRDE's schools, district offices and regional offices connect to the Internet using a "hub and spokes" topology, with PRDE headquarters at the center. There are no separate, direct connections among schools, but Wide Area Network capabilities are achievable through routers residing at PRDE's main data center and the "main cabinet" at each school.

PRDE operates an integrated Internet/WAN solution. While mainland school districts often contract separately for Internet service and data transport (linking schools both to the Internet and to each other through wide-area networks), PRDE has engaged a single vendor to provide both services as an integrated, centralized network. The online status of every school is constantly monitored by OSIATD personnel at headquarters, so that any outages can be noticed and responded to quickly.

PRDE maintains one general-purpose, high-capacity connection to the outside Internet (currently 10 Gbps, expandable) and one secondary, lower-capacity connection (currently 100 Mbps) for certain administrative functions. PRDE distributes the primary Internet bandwidth to individual schools using various technologies.

C. LOCAL AREA NETWORKS (LAN)

Each school has one router with two or three interfaces, one to the WAN one to its LAN and WiFi. Schools typically operate 2 local area networks [LANs]:<sup>3</sup>

- 1) Juniper or Cisco switch for administrative services (e.g., SIS, TAL)
- 2) Juniper or Nortel switch for classroom/curricular work.

No proprietary protocols or features are in use; all TCP/IP.

Distribution of Internet access from the MPOE is often limited to just a few rooms due to a small number of data cabling drops and 1065 schools have the infrastructure for wireless coverage. The <sup>2</sup> The Department and E-Rate 2.0 goal is to provide 100 Mbps per 1000 students, initially, with 1 Gbps per 1000 students, for 99% of U.S. students, within five years.

<sup>3</sup> Where not already in place, school networks could be consolidated, using a single standard for switching equipment, through the use of Virtual LANs [VLANs].

21st Century Schools and New Schools are an exception, mostly having 100% wireless coverage, although there is no standardization in the selection and configuration of wireless equipment, and few schools have the infrastructure capacity to distribute significantly greater bandwidth wirelessly. AC power was reported as a significant barrier to technology adoption for many schools. Power is both inadequate and intermittent at many sites. Even schools with adequate electrical capacity and reliability reported too few outlets<sup>4</sup> to support the number of devices that educators wanted to deploy in many classrooms.

Two to three drops per classroom of PoE-enabled modern cabling, terminating at an IDF with UPS-protected power, could provide modern wireless access to every teacher with 1-2 drops available for future expansion, including additional access points as student device numbers increase, a wired printer, teacher station or a VoIP telephone. What matters is not just the number of drops per school but also how they are distributed to encourage greater integration of technology use, including Internet access, into the curriculum.

II. GENERAL INVITATION

1. OBJECTIVE

The Department is requesting proposals pursuant to RFP No: BMIC-OSIATD-FY2017-001 entitled “Request for Proposals for FY2017 Basic Maintenance of Internal Connections Equipment” (hereinafter, this “RFP”). The services described in this RFP shall be procured/performed on behalf of the Office of Information Systems and Technology Support for Teaching (“OSIATD”) for all of the Department’s schools identified on APPENDIX I (PRDE Schools). The Department intends to award a contract to one (1) or more vendors selected to provide services Year 2017 for the services requested in this RFP.

2. PROCUREMENT GUIDELINES

This RFP is issued pursuant to, and the competitive proposal process will be governed by, the Department Procurement Guidelines (the “Procurement Guidelines”) approved by the Secretary of Education for competitive proposals. The Procurement Guidelines are posted on the PRDE website at: http://intraedu.dde.pr/Subastas/BMIC\_OSIATD\_FY2017-001.pdf. Certain provisions of Procurement Guidelines are set forth in this RFP, but proposing vendors are required to review the full Procurement Guidelines and acknowledge and agree to comply with all of the terms and conditions thereof. To the extent any provisions in this RFP are found to be inconsistent with specific provisions of the Procurement Guidelines, the provisions of the Procurement Guidelines shall control.

Any challenge to this RFP and/or the competitive proposal process described herein for the 2017 Funding Year must be submitted to the Assistant Secretary of General Services within three (3) business days of the release of this RFP. The form and content of any challenge must be as set forth in Regulation 3241 (Regulation of the Board of Review, June 1985), which is posted on the PRDE website at: http://intraedu.dde.pr/Subastas/BMIC\_OSIATD\_FY2017-001.pdf. Unless a vendor files a challenge within the stated timeframe, the vendor shall be deemed to accept and agree to be bound by the terms and conditions of this RFP and the competitive proposal process established for the Department for FY2017.

<sup>4</sup> Increased emphasis on mobile computing, rather than traditional desktops, should ameliorate concerns about installation of additional outlets. Similarly, use of Power over Ethernet [PoE] switching technology at IDFs, backed up by eligible, uninterruptible power supplies [UPSs] should greatly reduce power consumption and reliability considerations, enabling widespread deployment of wireless network access. Reliable power to data closets and modern, wired LAN backbones to bring wireless access to classrooms remain essential.

3. VENDOR ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible for an award, each vendor must meet the prerequisites of the Procurement Guidelines, which include, but are not limited to:

III. REQUESTED SERVICES

1. REQUESTED SERVICES- BASIC MAINTENANCE OF INTERNAL CONNECTIONS

A. Overview

The PRDE is requesting basic maintenance of internal connections services for all the schools, with priority being given to break-fix services. Vendors should also propose ongoing preventative services for equipment, but must do so in a separate pricing proposal clearly marked "Preventative Maintenance Price Proposal." All proposals must be based on specified hourly rates and an estimate of annual hours expected for a school system the size of the PRDE. For purposes of this RFP, all basic maintenance services must comply with the following requirements:

- a) Basic maintenance services are "necessary" if, but for the maintenance at issue, the connection would not function and serve its intended purpose with the degree of reliability ordinarily provided in the marketplace to entities receiving such services.
- b) The following products and services are out of the scope of this RFP: on-site technical support (i.e., contractor duty station at the applicant site, when off-site technical support can provide basic maintenance on an as-needed basis), 24-hour network monitoring, network management, help desks (that provide a comprehensive level of support beyond basic maintenance of only eligible components), and technical support contracts that are more than basic maintenance. Basic maintenance costs must be separated out in the cost proposal response. Proposer must have a separate cost proposal for basic maintenance services.
- c) Basic maintenance shall be billed and paid only for actual hours worked, and cannot be based on annual subscription or insurance (e.g., Smartnet) that is payable upfront regardless of whether services are not used.

Vendors are requested to propose both preventative and break-fix maintenance for listed equipment. Preventative and break-fix maintenance include the following:

"Preventative Basic Maintenance" refers to software downloads, bug fixes, configuration changes and access to the manufacturers' technical assistance center as part of our preventative maintenance services. Also refers to clean and organize the IDFs of the schools, including the IDF identify for the ICP Project.

"Break-Fix Basic Maintenance" refers to replacement and repair of failed equipment and parts.

2. CURRENT NETWORK INFRASTRUCTURE

- A. Local Area Networks. The majority of school local area networks (LANs) are currently segmented into two networks, one for administrative areas (e.g., main office), and the other for instructional areas (e.g., classrooms, labs, libraries). Applications supported include Internet browser, time clocks, student information, miscellaneous local school programs, and Department-wide applications (e.g., content filtering). The school networks have various makes and manufacturers of LAN equipment consisting of switches, wireless access points, routers and hubs. The demarcation between the data network and LAN equipment is in the Main Distribution Frame (MDF) room. From the MDF room, the network is connected to various concentrator boxes (C-Boxes) or Intermediate Distribution Frames (IDF). From these C-boxes, the workstations are connected via category 5 or 6 cabling. The classroom, IDF, and main office concentrators may consist of hub(s) and/or switch(s). A sample of a school administrative network is set forth below.

The successful vendor(s) will be advised of selection by the Evaluation Committee. In accordance with Puerto Rico law, a Notice of Award and Acceptance Agreement ("Award Letter") shall be sent to the winning vendor(s) within three (3) business days of the vote of the Committee. The Award Letter shall include a summary of all vendor pricing, technical adviser findings and recommendations, the Evaluation Committee voting records, the reasons the winning vendor(s) was/were selected, the reasons losing proposals were not selected (including any vendor disqualifications), information concerning the review/appeal process, and such other information as shall be deemed necessary or appropriate by the Evaluation Committee. Copies of the Award Letter shall also be mailed to all other vendors that submitted proposals in response to this RFP. The winning vendor(s) shall be required to acknowledge acceptance of the award by returning an executed copy of the Award Letter to the Department before the Department.

4. CONTRACT

If no appeal is filed challenging an award made pursuant to this RFP, the Department and each selected vendor shall enter into a formal Confirmation of Services Agreement and Statement of Work prior to the filing of the Department's FY2017 applications. However, if a valid appeal is timely filed, the Department may not legally enter into a formal contract with the selected vendor unless and until the Administrative Review Board affirms the award by the Evaluation Committee. Specifically, Regulation 7040 (Regulations for the Acquisition, Sales and Auctions Goods, Works and Non-Personal Services by the Department of Education, October 5, 2005), as amended by Regulation 7545 on August 6, 2008 and further amended by Regulation 7934 on October 30, 2010), provides as follows:

Article 68 – POSTERIOR ACTION TO ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW PROCESS

Once the controversy under administrative review is resolved, unless a substitute auction is ordered, the auction record will be referred to the Buyer or Regulatory Office of Procurement, Auctions, and Contracts in order to proceed with the purchase or the formalization of the contract, as the case may be. The winning bidder will be the one to whom the auction was originally adjudicated if the request for review is declared to be without grounds; or the winning bidder will be the one designated by the Review Board if the decision made by the Auction Board is revoked. (Emphasis Added)

Any judicial appeal in process will not affect the continuity of the process of purchases, unless it is stopped by an order of a Court of Justice with jurisdiction over the case.

Because the Department is not legally permitted to execute a formal contract for an award being challenged on appeal, the Award Letter shall constitute the contract between the Department and the winning vendor, for purposes of E-Rate compliance. If the award is affirmed by the Review Board, the Department and the selected vendor shall execute a formal contract as expeditiously as possible.

5. APPEAL PROCESS

Award appeals shall be governed by the following laws and guidelines: (a) Regulation No. 7040, (b) Regulation No. 3241 (Regulation of the Board of Review, June 1985) and (c) the Procurement Guidelines. Any vendor adversely affected by the decision of the Evaluation Committee may file a request for review with the Administrative Review Board of the Department of Education. All requests for review must be filed within ten (10) calendar days from the date of the postmark on the envelope containing the Notice of Award and Acceptance Agreement addressed to the vendor seeking review. Vendors who fail to file requests for review within the ten (10) calendar-day period waive their right to contest an award.

Pursuant to Section 70 of Regulation 7040, a petition for review filed with the Administrative Review Department must be accompanied by an appeal bond. The appeal bond required to file an appeal of award(s) pursuant to this competitive proposal shall be 5% of vendor's total price proposal for the first year of the contract. If the vendor's appeal is found by the Administrative Review Department to be frivolous or capricious, the appeal bond may be executed and applied to offset any and all damages or additional costs suffered by the PRDE due to the frivolous review filing. In addition, any vendor determined to have filed a frivolous or unjustified appeal may also be eliminated from the Bidders Registry for a period of not less than one (1) year and not more than two (2) years. The appeal bond requirement is jurisdictional.
