(Narrator): Listen to the following passage. You will answer questions 3 through 5 based on this passage.

(Pause 3 seconds.)

(Narrator): Leonardo was an excellent student. His twin brother Tom was not. Tom always said Leonardo was smarter because he was born first. But that was not the reason at all. Leonardo just studied more, did his homework, and asked questions in class.

Tom said he wanted to do better in school and wanted Leonardo's help. Leonardo loved the idea of studying together. But, that wasn't Tom's plan. He wanted them to trade places. Leonardo stood before his brother in disbelief. He couldn't believe his brother wanted to trick his teacher and friends.

Leonardo found himself in a predicament. On the one hand, he loved his brother, and the idea of not being in the same grade level if Tom did not pass was horrible to him. But on the other hand, cheating was just wrong. What was Leonardo to do?
